PURPOSE AND SCOPE

The editor of The Alabama Lawyer shall serve at the pleasure of the Board of Bar Commissioners of the Alabama State Bar. During his or her tenure in office, he or she shall serve as chairman of the board of editors. The associate editor likewise shall serve at the pleasure of the Board of Bar Commissioners. The associate editor shall report to the editor and shall serve as chairman of the board of editors in the absence of the editor.

The board of editors is an advisory board and assists the editor in publishing The Alabama Lawyer and other publications assigned to it by the Board of Bar Commissioners. The board should periodically but no less than semi-annually, review the finances of The Alabama Lawyer and report its findings and recommendations to the executive committee of the Board of Bar Commissioners.

In accepting appointment to the board, each member shall consider it a personal responsibility to assure the contents of The Alabama Lawyer are interesting and enlightening to the bar's membership. The committee shall reflect the diversity of the Alabama State Bar and shall provide opportunities for members of the Young Lawyers' Section to become involved in its publication, where appropriate.

The chairperson shall work closely with the designated staff liaison which will assist the board in carrying out its purpose.

The committee shall elect from its membership a secretary who shall be responsible for a written record of its actions.

Done this 21st day of August, 2019.

Christy Crow

Christy Crow, President
Alabama State Bar