

IMPORTANT INFORMATION CONCERNING
RELOCATION OF THE MOBILE COUNTY PROBATE COURT

The Mobile County Probate Court is relocating its operations to the newly constructed Mobile County Courthouse Annex adjacent to Mobile Government Plaza. The relocation process will commence this Friday, March 26, 2010 and continue through the next several weeks. The Court will maintain normal operational hours during the move. It is the Court's goal for all personnel to be located in the new Annex and available to serve the public on Monday, March 29, 2010.

Marriage Ceremonies

No marriage ceremonies will be performed by the Mobile County Marriage Official on Friday, March 26, 2010 through Tuesday, March 30, 2010.

New Street Address

The new street address for the Court is 109 Government Street, Mobile, Alabama 36602.

Mailing Address Remains The Same

The Court's mailing address remains Post Office Box 7, Mobile, AL 36601.

New Telephone Numbers

The Court's telephone numbers are changing with the relocation. CLICK HERE to view a list of the new telephone and facsimile numbers for the employees and various divisions of the Court.

Judicial Hearings

The Court's new courtrooms have not been finished. Judicial hearings will continue to be held in Mobile Government Plaza in Court Room 6400, with the exception of mental health probable cause hearings, which will be conducted in the "Ceremonial" or "Mezzanine" Court Room on the mezzanine floor of the North Tower of Mobile Government Plaza.

Internet Web Site/E-mail Communication

The Court's Internet web site and e-mail communication will be turned off around 4:00 o'clock p.m. on Friday, March 26, 2010 to facilitate the relocation of computer equipment and machinery to the new building. Access to the web site and email communication will be reactivated as quickly as possible and before 8:00 o'clock a.m. on Monday, March 29, 2010.

Access To Archival Material

The Court's archival material and hundreds of books will be relocated in the coming weeks. Persons desiring access to these materials may experience a delay as this material is being relocated to the new Annex.
