For example, many educational institutions and law enforcement agencies can only access your records if the SSN is provided.

DIRECTIONS

Answer all questions. If you answer affirmatively to certain questions you will be instructed to complete specific forms with more detailed information. These include Forms 1 through 12 which may be found at the end of the application. You may be required to make copies of some of the blank Forms 1 through 12; therefore, do not mark on a form until you have made the requisite number of copies. If you cannot make copies of the forms, you may obtain them by calling or writing to the National Conference of Bar Examiners (NCBE), or you may obtain them online at www.ncbex.org by clicking on the Character and Fitness Services, Applications and Forms link, and logging into your electronic character and fitness application account for Alabama. A "Print Blank Application" link is available from the online application home page.

Your application will be processed only after you provide all the necessary information. To avoid delays, be sure to:

- Type your answers (ALL applicants will TYPE the application). Illegible applications will not be accepted.
- Advise references and former employers that our agency may be contacting them.
- Answer every question; do not leave anything blank. Incomplete applications will not be accepted.
- Provide the correct number, street name, city, state, and zip code for each address. Use the two-letter codes to indicate state/territory names. For your convenience these codes are listed at the bottom of this page.
- Indicate dates in the following format: month/day/year. For example, October 5, 2001, should be written as 10/05/2001.
- Make your responses as concise as possible, using only standard abbreviations to make your information fit into the spaces provided. Some fields are deliberately restricted; if you need additional space to answer a question, attach a separate sheet of paper with the question number clearly identified.
- Complete all forms required; you must provide all the requested information.
- It is your responsibility to provide accurate and complete information. If necessary, you need to consult with applicable courts, agencies, or other entities to obtain dates, locations, or other required information.
- Sign all forms requiring your signature in front of a notary public.
- Include four original properly executed Authorization and Release Forms. These forms must be single-sided.
- Contact the jurisdiction to which you are applying for mailing instructions.
- Keep a copy of your completed application for your personal records.
- It is your responsibility to update your application during its pendency. You can obtain amendment forms online at www.ncbex.org by clicking on the Character and Fitness Services, Applications and Forms link.

LSAC Number _____

You are being asked to supply your LSAC number (a number assigned to you by the Law School Admission Council and implemented fairly recently by LSAC), if you have one, on a voluntary basis. If you have received such a number from LSAC, you may access it through the following link: <http://lsaclookup.lsc.org/lookup.aspx>. NCBE is studying the feasibility of using LSAC numbers as identifiers in lieu of Social Security Numbers for privacy reasons. In some cases, records are stored by institutions under the SSN; therefore, NCBE will continue to collect the SSN on a voluntary basis for use in situations in which records can only be accessed via SSN.

PREAMBLE TO QUESTIONS 25, 26, and 27

Through this application, the National Conference of Bar Examiners makes inquiry about recent mental health and addiction matters. This information, along with all other information, is treated confidentially by the National Conference and will be disclosed only to the jurisdiction(s) to which a report is submitted. The purpose of such inquiries is to determine the current fitness of an applicant to practice law. The mere fact of treatment for mental health problems or addictions is not, in itself, a basis on which an applicant is ordinarily denied admission in most jurisdictions, and boards of bar examiners routinely certify for admission individuals who have demonstrated personal responsibility and maturity in dealing with mental health and addiction issues. The National Conference encourages applicants who may benefit from treatment to seek it.

Boards do, on occasion, deny certification to applicants whose ability to function is impaired in a manner relevant to the practice of law at the time that the licensing decision is made, or to applicants who demonstrate a lack of candor by their responses. This is consistent with the public purpose that underlies the licensing responsibilities assigned to bar admission agencies; further, the responsibility for demonstrating qualification to practice law is ordinarily assigned to the applicant in most jurisdictions.

The National Conference does not ordinarily seek medical records, although the jurisdiction in which the applicant is seeking admission may do so.

The National Conference does not, by its questions, seek information that is fairly characterized as situational counseling. Examples of situational counseling include stress counseling, domestic counseling, grief counseling, and counseling for eating or sleeping disorders. Generally, the National Conference and the various boards of bar examiners do not view these types of counseling as germane to the issue of whether an applicant is qualified to practice law.

25. Within the past five years, have you been diagnosed with or have you been treated for bipolar disorder, schizophrenia, paranoia, or any other psychotic disorder? Yes No

If you answered yes, complete FORMS 7 & 8. Duplicate FORMS 7 & 8 as needed.

26. A. Do you currently have any condition or impairment (including, but not limited to, substance abuse, alcohol abuse, or a mental, emotional, or nervous disorder or condition) which in any way currently affects, or if untreated could affect, your ability to practice law in a competent and professional manner? Yes No
- B. If your answer to Question 26(A) is yes, are the limitations caused by your mental health condition or substance abuse problem reduced or ameliorated because you receive ongoing treatment (with or without medication) or because you participate in a monitoring program? Yes No

If your answer to Question 26(A) or (B) is yes, complete FORMS 7 & 8. Duplicate FORMS 7 & 8 as needed. As used in Question 26, "currently" means recently enough so that the condition could reasonably have an impact on your ability to function as a lawyer.

CHARACTER AND FITNESS INFORMATION

27. Within the past five years, have you ever raised the issue of consumption of drugs or alcohol or the issue of a mental, emotional, nervous, or behavioral disorder or condition as a defense, mitigation, or explanation for your actions in the course of any administrative or judicial proceeding or investigation; any inquiry or other proceeding; or any proposed termination by an educational institution, employer, government agency, professional organization, or licensing authority?
