This information is provided by the Alabama State Bar and Legal Services Alabama, in partnership with the following organizations, to help meet the legal needs of Alabama's Spanish-speaking population:

- Alabama Cooperative Extension System
- Alabama Latin American Association
- Cumberland School of Law
- Hispanic Interest Coalition of Alabama (jHICA!)
- KPI Latino

- Do you need to file for bankruptcy?
- Are you a victim of domestic violence?
- Have you been injured at work?
- Have you been arrested by a law enforcement agency?
- Do you need to write a will and testament?
- Are you being evicted?

How does it work?

You will talk with a Spanish-speaking representative who will ask some questions to determine what you need. Depending on your eligibility and attorney availability, you will be referred to a lawyer who can help you with your problem.
