Charlie received his Bachelor of Science in Civil Engineering from Auburn University before attending Cumberland School of Law where he graduated cum laude in 2011.

Prior to law school, Charlie worked for Brasfield & Gorrie General Contractors off-and-on for four years. He began his legal externship with Hoar Construction, LLC where he assisted a project team in preparation of claims and presentation materials for mediation, handled document assembly, review, and transmission in response to subpoena requests, worked with outside counsel to prepare for expert witness depositions for arbitration and prepared legal education training programs for project managers, and estimators. He then went to Bradley Arant as an associate gaining experience in representation. In early 2015 Charlie became associate general counsel at Hoar Holdings, LLC reviewing all prime contracts, managing and coordinating with outside counsel on all pending litigation matters, preparing and presenting educational seminars to employees on various legal topics, and providing counsel to employees and project teams.

Charlie has been an assistant youth baseball coach for Mountain Brook Athletics, a Cub Scout Den Leader for Boys Scouts of America, a board member of Friends of Winnataska, and a participant of the Birmingham Bar Volunteer Lawyer's Program. He is a member of the Alabama Chapter of Association of Corporate Counsel and the American Bar Association. Charlie is a member of the Alabama State Bar's Construction Law Section and the In-House Counsel & Government Lawyers Section. He was also a member of the 2013 Class of Future Leaders of Construction – an Alabama Chapter of Associated Builders and Contractors. Charlie enjoys spending time with his wife and three children. His interests include history, carpentry, Auburn football, fishing and being involved in the men's ministry at Cahaba Park Church.
