

M. Jansen Voss

Scott, Sullivan, Streetman & Fox
2450 Valleydale Road
Birmingham, AL 35244
(205)968-3130
voss@sssandf.com

Jansen received his Bachelor of Arts degree in history from Birmingham-Southern College in 2002. He was a member of the school's Jazz, Concert and Pep Band, was on the Dean's List and participated in the Birmingham-Southern College Outreach at Trades Tower assisted living home. He attended The University of Alabama School of Law and The University of Alabama Graduate School of Business, receiving both his Juris Doctor and MBA in 2006. Jansen was a Law School Senator and on the Senate Academic Affairs Committee for the university, received the Jerome A. Hoffman Student Leadership Award, on the Mediation Team, Habitat for Humanity volunteer, editor for the Law & Psychology Review and a member of the Bench & Bar Honor Society.

Jansen is licensed to practice in Alabama and Mississippi. He is a board member for the Jefferson, Blount, St. Clair County Mental Health Authority, a junior board member for Pre-School Partner and a Junior Achievement of Greater Birmingham volunteer teacher. He had been employed with Scott, Sullivan, Streetman & Fox since 2007, defending health care professionals, mental health facilities, insurance agencies, pharmaceutical manufacturers and various businesses. He is a volunteer with the Jefferson County Mediation Project, a member of the Defense Research Institute and is involved in the Birmingham Bar Association. He is a 2014 graduate of the Birmingham Bar Association Future Leaders program.