

Brown, Valerie J.

Valerie Brown Law, LLC
PO Box 21065
Huntsville, AL 35813-5065
(256) 617-7294
valerie@valeriebrownlaw.com

Valerie received her Bachelor of Arts in English, African-American Studies from The University of Alabama. She was a Dean's List Scholar, Norton Textra Scholarship Recipient, Academic Excellence Award Recipient and in the Sigma Tau Delta (English Honor Society). She received her Juris Doctor from Regent University in Virginia receiving the 2011 Regent Law Inaugural Community Changer Award, Regent BLSA Leadership Scholarship, Ramon N. West Scholarship, and the Making the Commitment-Public Service Award. At Regent, she was involved in the Regent Black Law Students Association, National Black Law Students Association, a Kaplan PMBR Student Representative, and chapter president of the Virginia Bar Association Law School Council.

Prior to law school, Valerie worked as an Instructional ESOL Aide developing interdisciplinary lessons for Second Language Learners in Texas and tutored students with limited English language skills. She was a law clerk for Campus Crusade for Christ International General Counsel in Florida and a CASA Volunteer in Virginia for Friends of Portsmouth Juvenile Court, Inc. During school breaks, she interned and became a summer associate in Mississippi. As a third-year Practice Student, Valerie worked at the Regent University Litigation Clinic and became an Adjunct Instructor with Antonelli College Online. Since 2011, Valerie has been sole owner of her firm, Valerie Brown Law, LLC.

Valerie is affiliated with the Huntsville-Madison County Bar Association, Madison County Volunteer Lawyers Program, American Bar Association, Alabama Lawyers Association, and is a Certified Guardian Ad Litem for the State of Alabama.