

Isbell, Jason

Alabama Bankers Association
445 Dexter Avenue, Ste 10025
Montgomery, AL 36104
(334) 244-9456
jisbell@alabamabankers.com

Jason received his Bachelor of Science in Business Administration from Faulkner University, Harris College of Business. He was Student Interclub Council president and senator, and vice president and president of the Student Government Association. He received his Master of Business Administration from Auburn University Montgomery, School of Business with a special emphasis in Finance. His overall final GPA was 4.0. Jason's Juris Doctor is from Faulkner University, Thomas Goode Jones School of Law where he earned local, regional, and national advocacy and academic scholarships and awards. He was senator and vice president of the Student Bar Association and Senior Editor of the Faulkner Law Review.

Jason crafted the $6 billion-plus Education Trust Fund budget and managed numerous budget-related projects as Legislative Fiscal Analyst with the Alabama Legislative Fiscal Office. As Chief Counsel with the Office of the Speaker of the Alabama House of Representatives, Jason served as the office's liaison with numerous public entities at the state, regional, and federal levels. In 2013, Jason joined the Alabama Bankers Association as vice president of Legal and Governmental Affairs.

Jason is affiliated with American Bankers Association, Alabama Civil Justice Reform Committee, Alabama Consumer Credit Task Force, Alabama Council of Association Executives, American Inns of Court, and is a student at the Alabama Banking School. He is also on the board of directors for Agape of Central Alabama and Alabama Coalition for Public Charter Schools. He is married with two sons and is a deacon and song-leader at University Church of Christ.