

Pruet, Daniel F.

Daniel F. Pruet, Attorney at Law, LLC
2620 6th Street
Tuscaloosa, AL 35401
(205) 345-1314
dfpruetlaw@gmail.com

Daniel received his Bachelor of Arts in English and History from The University of Alabama and graduating cum laude from Thomas Goode Jones School of Law. He was the managing editor for the Law Review and recipient of the Ronald A. Canty Memorial Scholarship and the Justice Scholarship. He won first place in the J. Greg Allen Trial Competition and was a regional semi-finalist in the ATLA National Trial Competition.

Daniel clerked for the Honorable William C. Thompson at the Alabama Court of Civil Appeals and became Deputy District Attorney at the Tuscaloosa Court District Attorney's Office. He is an associate prosecutor with the Brent, Brookwood & Northport Municipal Courts and an Adjunct Instructor of Law Enforcement Academy of Tuscaloosa. He is a solo practitioner focusing on criminal defense and civil litigation and maintains a case load of 50-75 cases. Daniel also serves as Guardian ad Litem for children and adults in civil matters.

Daniel is affiliated with the Tuscaloosa Bar Association, National College of District Attorneys, Alabama Criminal Defense Lawyers Association, and Trinity Presbyterian Church. He has coached youth baseball since 2008.