Mandatory Continuing Legal Education Commission

Claim for Exemption under MCLE Regulation 2.7

MCLE Regulation 2.7 provides that an attorney who resides and maintains a principal office for the practice of law in another state that requires Mandatory Continuing Legal Education (MCLE) and who can demonstrate strict compliance with the MCLE requirements of his or her principal state of practice is exempt from these rules. This rule is strictly construed; therefore, no extension or state-specific grace period may be relied upon to demonstrate compliance in Alabama. A statement, with accompanying MCLE verification from your home state, and the required filing fee, must be submitted to the Alabama State Bar for every calendar year for which you claim the exemption provided by MCLE Regulation 2.7.

I. IF YOU ARE COMPLIANT IN YOUR STATE FOR THE 2019 CLE YEAR, YOU MAY FILE YOUR STATEMENT NOW

If you have already fulfilled the MCLE requirements of your home state and expect to claim the Regulation 2.7 exemption in Alabama for 2019, please complete the statement below and return it to the MCLE Commission with the MCLE verification from your home state and a $25 processing fee.

II. ALL OTHER REGULATION 2.7 CLAIMS FOR 2018 MUST BE SUBMITTED BY FEBRUARY 15, 2020

Statements must be received by the MCLE Commission by February 15, 2020. Statements received after that date will be considered untimely and will be subject to Late Reporting Fees. Statements which reflect a compliance date after December 31, 2019 also will be subject to Late Compliance Fees.

III. IF YOU NO LONGER SEEK TO CLAIM THE EXEMPTION UNDER REGULATION 2.7, YOU MUST FULFILL YOUR ALABAMA MCLE REQUIREMENT OF A MINIMUM OF 12 HOURS, INCLUDING 1 HOUR OF ETHICS, BY DECEMBER 31, 2019.
