

AlaFile Tutorial – Notice of Appeal

The following instructions pertain to the electronic filing of the Notice of Appeal to the Alabama Appellate Courts through AlaFile (<https://alafile.alacourt.gov>). Notices of Appeal must be filed through the “Notice of Appeal” tab on the main navigation bar in AlaFile so that the notice can be transmitted to the appropriate appellate court clerk. Do not file your notice of appeal through any other tab or option.

1. Hover your mouse over Notice of Appeal on the main navigation bar and single click.

2. Select the County, Division, Case Year and Case Number (with any extensions if necessary).

24. After the transaction is completed, a e-file receipt will be generated. The e-file receipt can be printed or saved.

Additional Considerations:

1. The attached Notice of Appeal Tutorial applies only for ELECTRONIC filings of Notices of Appeal to the State Appellate Courts. Notices of Appeal to the Circuit Court MUST continue to be PAPER filed at this time.
2. If a Notice of Appeal to a State Appellate Court is PAPER filed, then traditional rules apply (nothing changes with the paper process). When a filer PAPER files a Notice of Appeal to a State Appellate Court, the Circuit Clerk's Office will continue accepting and sending payment to the appropriate Appellate Court Clerk.
3. When a filer ELECTRONICALLY files a Notice of Appeal to a State Appellate Court, the filer is instructed, as per the appellate rules, that the filer is responsible for sending payment directly to the appropriate appellate court (the appellate clerks' addresses are provided within AlaFile). When a Notice of Appeal is correctly e-filed, AlaFile will generate an email to the respective Appellate and Trial Court notifying them of this e-filing. AlaFile will generate a courtesy e-notice to all registered parties of AlaFile. A courtesy copy will be sent to the Circuit Clerk's Office of the trial court where the Notice of Appeal was e-filed (via an email sent to the Emails Queue within AlacourtPlus for further processing in SJIS). Finally, a Case Action Summary entry will also be generated.
4. "Batch filings" of Notices of Appeals is not available. Each case will need a new and separate filing.
