Judge Robinson's Birmingham docket will be held telephonically only. No attorneys or other parties should come to the courthouse. Attorneys, please be sure to let your clients know about this change. Parties should dial-in five minutes prior to the start of the hearing. The dial-in number is 1-877-873-8018, enter Access Code 9913581#. Once connected, please mute your phone until your case is called.

Judge Mitchell's Docket for Thursday, March 19, 2020

Judge Mitchell's docket will be held telephonically only. No attorneys or other parties should come to the courthouse. Attorneys, please be sure to let your clients know about this change. Parties should dial-in five minutes prior to the start of the hearing. The call-in number and passcode for each of the Judges may be found on each "Judge's" tab on the Court's webpage at www.alnb.uscourts.gov.

Judge Crawford's Docket on Tuesday, March 17, 2020:

Based on previously-issued notice, all matters scheduled for hearing on Tuesday, March 17, will remain on the docket in courtroom no. 1 and will be heard. However, based on the rapidly changing status of current events related to COVID-19, please be informed of the following:

1. Debtors, creditors, and other clients should not come to the courthouse unless the attorney determines that their testimony is necessary to proceed with the scheduled matters. Attorneys must notify their clients of this information as soon as possible.
2. Anyone, including an attorney, who is sick should not come to the courthouse.
3. Any attorney who wants to appear for tomorrow's docket by telephone can obtain the call-in information here: <https://www.alnb.uscourts.gov/node/326>
4. All parties or attorneys who are in courtroom no. 1 should practice social distancing, and courtroom no. 2 will be open, with courtroom audio feed, for additional seating until your case is called.
5. Please direct any questions about this consumer docket to Shewana Callies, Courtroom Deputy at (205) 714-3880.
