

Administrative Order
20th Judicial Circuit
(Houston and Henry Counties)
May 14, 2020

Pursuant to the Supreme Court's Administrative Order No. 7 dated May 13, 2020, the restrictions and exceptions to in-person hearings in the 20th Judicial Circuit (Houston and Henry Counties) are extended through May 31, 2020.

The list of exceptions to the restriction on in-person hearings is extended to those hearings that have already been set for in-person hearings during this period, that have been discussed with the presiding judge, and that have a safety plan in place. As with any case, those hearings may still be continued or converted to a virtual hearing at the judge's discretion.

The Clerks of each county are to enter and forward this Order to the Chief Justice.

Done this the 14th day of May, 2020.

R. Todd Derrick, Presiding Judge
Twentieth Judicial Circuit
